PARDEE AND DALTON SUED BY BANKER D. EDWARD COLLINS. PLANS TO MEET THE PRINCE.

He Makes Sensational Charges of Fraud, Conspiracy and Misappropriation of Funds in the Management of the Enquirer Publishing Company—Says Property is Being Wrecked.

D. Edward Collins, president of the California Bank, has brought suit as a stockholder for an accounting against the Enquirer Publishing Company, Dr. George C. Pardee, Assessor Henry P. Dalton, G. B. Daniels, A. L. Smith, L. G. Jordan, and M. del Hadley. By reason of the prominence of the parties and the grave allegations of the complaint, the suit has caused a great sensation in social and political circles. To say that it has set every tongue wagging is drawing it mild.

In his complaint Mr. Collins charges Dr. Pardee, Assessor Dalton, and Editor Daniels point blank with conspiracy, misappropriation of funds and general misfeasance of the most serious character involving moral turpitude and serious violations of law. The gravamen of the allegations is all directed at Pardee, Dalton and Daniels—Smith, Jordan and Hadley being treated as secondary directors acting for the others. It was necessary, however, to include them as defendants in bringing the action.

Mr. Collins alleges that Dr. Pardee and Mr. Dalton are the real owners of a majority of the Enquirer stock, and that it is held in the name of G. B. Daniels as a blind. He further alleges that the property has been misappropriated and its funds misappropriated to further the individual interests of Dalton, to the damage of the corporation and the injury of other stockholders, and this he declares was done with the connivance of Dr. Pardee; that in all this Daniels has been merely the agent of Pardee and Dalton.

The complaint is a long one and bristles with detailed accusations of fraud, conspiracy, misappropriation of funds and violations of the laws of the State and by-laws of the corporation. Henry Ach of San Francisco and J. B. Richardson of Oakland appear as attorneys for the plaintiff.

Mr. Collins set forth that he owns one hundred and eighty shares of Enquirer stock, which he has held since 1894, and that Pardee and Dalton are the actual owners of 505 shares and Hadley the owner of the other 65 of the 750 shares in the corporation; that up to the 5th of February, 1898, F. A. Leach, now Superintendent of the Mint, was the owner of 505 shares, and was the president and manager of the corporation; and that up to that time fifty-one dividends of fifty cents a share had been declared.

Plaintiff alleges that on February 5, 1898, George C. Pardee and Henry P. Dalton acquired the shares owned by Leach, and placed Daniels in control of the property as president and manager. Since then no dividends have been paid, although it is alleged that the corporation has continued to make large earnings and profits, "but the same have not been accounted for, and have been misappropriated and misapplied by said Daniels, Pardee and Dalton."

It is further alleged that no meeting of the stockholders was called for the years 1899, 1900, and 1901, although it is provided in the by-laws of the Enquirer Publishing Company that an annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the first Saturday in July of each year; that no accounting has been made to the stockholders, and no meeting of the Directors held since January 10, 1901; "that during all of said times all of the Directors, other than the plaintiff herein, in the management and direction of said corporation, were the tools and servants of George C. Pardee, Henry P. Dalton and G. B. Daniels."

The complaint goes on to allege that December, 1898, G. B. Daniels was voted a salary of $500 per month as manager of the Enquirer Company, although he was a man of no experience in the newspaper and publishing business, and plaintiff avers that he believes said salary was voted to pay interest on the purchase money paid for the 505 shares of stock bought from Leach, and was a misappropriation of the funds of the corporation.

Continuing the complaint alleges that no meeting of stockholders has been held, no meeting of the Directors has been held, no dividends declared, and no statements have been furnished stockholders, as required by the by-laws, by the order and direction of George C. Pardee, Henry P. Dalton, G. B. Daniels and the directors other than plaintiff; that the plaintiff is advised and believes, therefore, alleges the fact to be, that all of said acts and omissions of said George C. Pardee, said Henry P. Dalton, said G. B. Daniels, said M. del Hadley, said A. L. Smith, and said L. G. Jordan, are in fraud of the rights of this plaintiff as a stockholder, are in violation of the laws of the State of California and absolutely in violation of the by-laws of the corporation.

He also charges that large receipts of the Enquirer Publishing Company have been withheld from the books of the corporation, and that large sums of money have been diverted by the defendants, and that the defendants have used the assets of the Enquirer Company for the sole benefit of Henry P. Dalton, by and with the consent of George C. Pardee and the other defendants; that they have used the material and property of the corporation and paid out its money for the individual benefit of Henry P. Dalton. All this was "planned and executed," in pursuance of a fraudulent scheme, combination and conspiracy herein for the purpose of depreciating the value of the stock of plaintiff, and for the purpose of conducting the business of the corporation for their own benefit, and irrespective of the rights of the other stockholders.

And plaintiff further alleges that on or about February 5, 1898, George C. Pardee and Henry P. Dalton did borrow individually from the Central Bank of Oakland $55,000, and did cause a note to be executed either by themselves or G. B. Daniels, and by them endorsed or guaranteed, which note draws interest, as the plaintiff is advised and believes, monthly at a large rate; that said moneys were applied to the purchase of the Enquirer stock formerly owned by F. A. Leach; that Daniels was voted a salary of $500 a month as manager, notwithstanding his inexperience and in face of plaintiff's repeated protests, although F. A. Leach received only $50 a week for directing the business of the company, he being an experienced man.

Plaintiff avers that there is no such office as general manager created by the by-laws; and that the allowance of $500 a month to Daniels is illegal and a fraud on the plaintiff.

Continuing the complaint alleges that Daniels was without means on the 5th day of February, 1898, and had no experience whatever in the business conducted by the corporation, and that the company could have obtained an experienced manager of the best talent for $200 a month. Therefore the plaintiff alleges that the resolution granting Daniels a salary of $500 per month was directed by George C. Pardee and Henry Dalton, and their associates "for ulterior purposes, and in fraud of the corporation and the stockholders; and for the purpose of misapplying the funds and wrecking the corporation, and to deprive the plaintiff of the value of his stock; and for the purpose of providing a fund where-with Daniels, Dalton and Pardee could, without drawing upon their individual resources, pay the interest upon the promissory note for $55,000 in the Central Bank."

It is further alleged that all the interest payments on this note have been made with funds misappropriated from the Enquirer Publishing Company.

It is also alleged that large sums have been received from the city printing which has been withheld from the stockholders; and that in this connection plaintiff is advised and alleges that defendants claim to have paid large sums of money to W. E. Dargie and others in pursuance of the same fraudulent scheme and conspiracy of the stockholders acting in and for the Enquirer Publishing Company and that plaintiff is further advised and believes, although unable to ascertain definitely on account of the failure of defendants to keep the books properly that the sums amount to many thousands.

Then follows various allegations of fraud, unlawful conversion of funds in connection with various dealings, winding up with the avowment that no proper books are kept, and that Daniels is simply a figurehead used by Dalton and Pardee in running the Enquirer for their own personal interests and for the political advancement of themselves and friends, by reason of which the value of the property has been greatly depreciated, and that the value of plaintiff's stock has been reduced fully $10,000. Plaintiff alleges that the defendants are not in possession of sufficient wealth to pay all their outstanding obligations and such damages as may accrue from their "malfeasance, misconduct and misappropriation as hereinbefore alleged."

STATEMENT MADE BY DR. PARDEE.

Dr. Pardee today made the following statement:

"While I have seen and very hastily read what purports to be a copy of a complaint filed against several other gentlemen and myself by Mr. D. Edward Collins, I gather from what I have read of it that he charges me with conspiring to defraud the Enquirer Publishing Company and himself. Now, as a matter of fact, I do not own a share of Enquirer stock, have no interest in it, and know nothing of its affairs. Mr. Collins, therefore, did not tell the truth when he swore to the charges he has made against me.

"Mr. Collins has never spoken to me about the Enquirer or its affairs and the only attempt he has ever made to approach me in the matter, was to endeavor to sell me through an agent, some Enquirer stock. I refused to purchase, not thinking for a moment, that the refusal would subject me to the expense and annoyance of defending myself against a false and malicious suit on a lot of trumped-up and malicious charges.

"Be that as it may, however, I shall take the proper steps to defend myself against Mr. Collins' suit. And, when the proper time comes, will show that Mr. Collins is, to be polite about it, entirely mistaken when he makes such a lot of foolishly untrue charges against me."

MR. HADLEY'S POSITION.

Mr. Hadley was seen at the Enquirer office this morning. He said: "I am still looking after the business end of the paper as in the past. I shall make no statement for publication."

D. E. COLLINS MAKES REPLY.

D. Edward Collins this afternoon said: "All I care to say about the matter is in reference to Dr. Pardee's insinuation that the suit was brought to bully rag the Enquirer into silence on the water question. That is absolutely groundless. I have no interest in the water company nor any connection with it—do not own a share of its stock, and know nothing of its affairs beyond what I see in the papers. I have brought suit simply to protect my own business interests, and the complaint speaks for itself. The allegations are specific and are as totally disconnected with the water question as the moon is from the earth."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC DID NOT BUY

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Jan. 15.—The rumor to the effect that the Southern Pacific Company had purchased Section thirty-three in the Kern River district from the Imperial and "33" Oil Companies for a sum believed to be between three and seven millions of dollars, proves to have been without foundation, according to a statement made today by S. L. Mack, cashier of the Bank of Bakersfield, and brother to J. J. Mack, one of the organizers of the company. Last night nothing else but the sale was talked of. While it is admitted that the Southern Pacific Company would make money by purchasing the property rather than by buying the output at $1 a barrel, it is now emphatically denied by the company that any change other than a substitution of superintendents for the property was intended.

Admiral Evans Preparing for the Great Naval Parade.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who has been charged with the preparation and execution of the naval program at the reception of Prince Henry of Prussia, called upon Dr. Von Holleben, the German Ambassador, at the Embassy today and consulted him regarding the arrangements for the naval welcome to be accorded the distinguished visitors. Admiral Evans will keep in close touch with the Ambassador and the Embassy officials in order that he may conform his arrangements to those of the visiting party, notice of the latter's plans being conveyed from Berlin to the Embassy at Washington.

It may be stated upon authority that the Kronprinz Wilhelm will not deviate from her course and go first to Hampton Roads as heretofore reported, but will bear Prince Henry directly to New York, where the naval demonstration proper will take place.

The following squadron has been assigned to Rear Admiral Evans by the Navy Department to welcome the Prince:

Fingship—The Battleship Illinois. Protected cruisers—Olympia, San Francisco and Cincinnati. Cruiser—Hartford.

While detailed arrangements for the movements of the squadron have not yet been made, Admiral Evans states that the vessels will probably rendezvous at Tompkinsville and possibly join the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern on her way up the Atlantic coast from the West Indies and escort her to New York harbor.

Admiral Evans will have with him the same staff that was selected to accompany him to the Asiatic Station, Captain George A. Converse, as commander of the flagship Illinois, will be his flag captain; Lieutenant Frederick L. Chapin, his flag lieutenant; Lieutenant Thomas Washington, flag secretary and several other naval aides.

TICKETS LOST IN A STATION FIRE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Fire broke out in the ticket office of the Union Station, Adams and Canal streets, shortly before noon today and for a time threatened the destruction of the building. The smoke and flames spread so rapidly that sixty employees of the several roads that make the station their Chicago terminal had an exciting time to escape suffocation. The men were busy at work on annual statements in the offices just above and to the rear of ticket offices and a number escaped by jumping from a lower window to the structure of a viaduct on the Adams street side of the building.

Over a million dollars worth of unstamped tickets for the Pennsylvania, Burlington, Alton, St. Paul, the Panhandle and Fort Wayne roads and the Pullman Company were destroyed but it is thought no valid tickets are missing. The station, which is the property of the Pennsylvania lines, was damaged to the extent of $10,000. The annual passenger statements of all the roads were destroyed and will be delayed two weeks.

TRAINS HELD UP BY ROBBERS.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Jan. 15.—The south-bound Kansas City Southern passenger train was held up last night at 11 o'clock half a mile from Spiro, I. T., by seven masked men. The express and mail cars were entered. The local safe in the express car was opened but nothing secured from it. The robbers tried to open the through safe, but failed. They then rifled the mail car and, it is said, secured a quantity of registered mail.

"The scene of the robbery is fifteen miles from Fort Smith. A report today from there says that U. S. Marshals are scouring the country in search of the robbers. Three suspects, minors, have been arrested and express officials decline to state how much booty was secured. It is stated, however, that the robbers got away with $2000."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 16.—The Kansas City Southern train held up at Spiro, I. T., was regular passenger train No. 1, which left Kansas City yesterday at 11 A. M. It was taken to Spiro, I. T., last night and at Fort Smith at midnight. Officials at the general offices in this city up to 12 o'clock this afternoon refused to give out details of the robbery.

APPOINTED TO OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The President has decided to appoint Morgan O. Llewellyn, surveyor general of New Mexico to succeed the present incumbent, Mr. Vance. Mr. Llewellyn is the son of W. H. H. Llewellyn, who was Lieutenant Colonel in the President's regiment. The son also served in the Rough Riders.

The President has also decided to appoint H. D. Bowman, receiver of the General Land Office at Las Cruces; Mr. Leland, a brother of Cyrus Leland of Kansas, receiver at Roswell; and M. R. Otero a distant relative of the Governor and the father-in-law of Solomon Luna, the national committee-man from New Mexico, receiver at Santa Fe.

KING EDWARD OPENS THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT.

Sorry That the War in Africa is Not Ended—Tells of the Treaty With Uncle Sam—Reference to the Sugar Decision—Enthusiasm in the House.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—King Edward opened Parliament with a ceremonial in all essential respects similar to that of February last. The procession to the House of Lords was of the same character as that witnessed on the occasion of the opening of the first Parliament of King Edward's reign, while within the upper House were seen the same state pageantry, the same historic dresses and the same revival of ancient forms.

After robing, King Edward and Queen Alexandra entered the House of Peers and occupied their thrones, beneath a canopy, with the Prince and Princess of Wales on either side of them. The other members of the royal family were seated on chairs at the foot of the steps leading to the throne.

The gentleman usher of the black robe, General Sir Michael Biddulph, having summoned the Speaker and the members of the House of Commons, His Majesty read the speech from the throne.

The speech opened with a reference to the tour of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

"They were everywhere," said the King, "received with demonstrations of the liveliest affection and I am convinced their presence served to rivet more closely the bonds of mutual regard and loyalty by which the vigor of the Empire is maintained."

Referring to Great Britain's relations with foreign countries, the King said: "My relations with the other powers continue to be most friendly."

Contrary to expectations, the King's reference to the war was just as indefinite as the statements made on the subject in the last half dozen messages from the front.

"I regret," said His Majesty, "that the war in South Africa is not yet concluded, though the course of the operations has been favorable to our arms, the area of war largely reduced and industries are being resumed in my new colonies. In spite of the tedious character of the campaign, my soldiers throughout have displayed a cheerfulness and endurance and a humanity, even to their own detriment, in the treatment of the enemy which are deserving of the highest praise. The necessity for relieving those of my troops who have most felt the strain of war has afforded me the opportunity of again availing myself of the loyal and patriotic offers of my colonies, and further contingents will shortly remove South Africa from the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand."

In regard to the sugar conference, the King said:

"I trust its decision may lead to the abandonment of the system by which the sugar producing colonies and home manufacturers of sugar have been unfairly weighted in the prosecution of this important industry."

Then came the following clause: "I have concluded with the President of the United States a treaty the provisions of which will facilitate the construction of an inter-oceanic canal under guarantees that its neutrality will be maintained and that it will be open to the commerce and shipping of all nations."

Next followed references to the Anglo-Brazilian treaty, to the referring of the British Guiana-Brazil boundary line questions to the arbitration of the King of Italy, to the necessity for the continuance of famine relief measures in India and to the death of the Ameer, "whose son, Habib Ullah, has expressed an earnest desire to maintain the friendly relations of Afghanistan with my India Empire."

After announcing that the estimates "have been framed as economically as duty required for their efficiency renders possible in the special circumstances of the present exigency," the speech concluded with mentioning proposed legislation solely domestic interest with the exception of purchase of land in New Zealand.

Their Majesties then retired amid a fanfare of trumpets and attended by the same regular ceremonial as accompanied their entry into the House.

The crowds which lined the route from Buckingham Palace to Westminster to view the procession were not nearly so large as on the occasion of the last opening of Parliament. Guardsmen assisted by hundreds of police kept the spectators back, but they had little to do. Only a few attempts at decoration were visible.

For once royalty was late, and when the King and Queen drove out from the courtyard in front of Buckingham Palace they were twenty minutes behind time and King Edward was still grumbling with an unruly glow.

They sat in the state coach which glided up the park, King Edward and Queen Alexandra looking at the world like a pair of one's better looking spouses. The gold and glass frame, with its huge wheels, rolled on its ancient springs like a ship in a storm. The King and Queen both looked extra-darling in their new uniforms. "What with the two central figures so easily seen and so gorgeously clad, and the brilliant uniforms of the Life Guards, whose bands kept constantly playing an uplifting march, it was nothing to what occurred earlier in the day, when the guards' reliefs left their barracks on route to South Africa. The guardsmen tramped through the dark streets of the metropolis at 6 o'clock in the morning, accompanied by a numerous mob of civilian friends, singing songs to the accompaniment of the band.

The songs and music, however, did not drown the crying of women, who clung to the necks and arms of almost every man of the contingent.

On alighting at the royal entrance of the Houses of Parliament, beneath the Victoria Tower, King Edward and Queen Alexandra were met by the high officers of state and were conducted to the robing rooms.

Having assumed their gorgeous robes, the procession was formed and preceded by the Duke of Devonshire, Lord President of the Council, bearing the Imperial crown, and the herald and pursuivants, they entered the House of Peers amid a fanfare of trumpets.

The scene in the gilded chamber was very brilliant. State officers, Ambassadors and Ministers in handsome uniforms and Peers and Peeresses in various colored robes filled every nook.

The King, beneath his robes, wore a Field Marshal's uniform. The Queen's dress was of black velvet, surmounted by a robe trimmed with ermine. The Peeresses all wore ostrich feathers in their hair and were richly clad in evening robes of the most varied colors, white satin, however, predominating. The display of jewels was unusually dazzling.

The only departure from the former procedure was when the King referred to the humanity of the British troops in South Africa. This led to an unprecedented scene in the House of Lords. Peers arose and expressed high officers of state broke out into a prolonged cheer which was repeated again and again, to the entire satisfaction of His Majesty, but to the apparent dismay of the officials of the House, whose signature of the House of Commons was from ancient traditions were ineffectual to stop the outburst of enthusiasm.

There was only a meager attendance of members when the House of Commons met this afternoon to commence the work of the session.

Irish affairs cropped out almost immediately. Earl Percy, Conservative (father of the Duke of Northumberland and member for the South Division of Kensington) moving a resolution to the effect that the election from Galway of Col. Arthur Lynch, "who was commonly known as 'The Black and White'," reported to have been elected to the House, and a committee should be appointed to consider the course to pursue.

The Speaker, William Court Gully, declined to accept the motion until notice of it was given in the usual way.

The Chairman of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks Beach, has given out definite assurance that there will be no alteration of the coal tax in the forthcoming budget.

Mr. MacNeal, Irish Nationalist (member for South Donaghadee) created the scene of the session by declaring the fact that the Nationalist members had been imprisoned in dungeons at the request of the Government. He moved the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter. When Mr. MacNeal questioned his ruling and was called to order.

MEETING OF RAILROAD MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The United Brotherhood of Railway Employees today adopted several amendments to its constitution and approved of the clause of the admission to membership of all through railroad men, temporarily out of employment. It decided that its President shall be elected by popular vote. Any local lodge can nominate a candidate for president, but he must be seconded by four divisions in good standing before his name can be accepted. The votes in each division will be separately canvassed and the results sent under seal and signature of the official division to headquarters. The board of directors shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction in all matters except initiation or investigation of officers' conduct.

Its membership, it was decided, shall include engineers, firemen, conductors, train men, telegraph operators, freight handlers, clerks, switchmen, section men, carpenters, car repairers and shop men.

BARRY BALDWIN, JR. TAKES LIFE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Barry Baldwin Jr., son of former United States Marshal Barry Baldwin and one of the best known young men in San Francisco, expired at his home, No. 284 Washington street, from gas asphyxiation, this morning.

He was found by the servants in the parlor of his home at 6:20 o'clock this morning. When they entered the front parlor they found gas flowing from an open jet. Baldwin was lying dead on a couch. One window was partly open. It is supposed Baldwin turned the gas out and then turned it on again by mistake.

REIGN OF TERROR AMONG WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

The reign of terror which began when 13-year-old Flossie White, the orphaned daughter of Policeman William McCloud, was attacked by a madman and left unconscious, bound hand and foot, upon the sidewalk at Seventh and Chestnut streets, has not subsided. Last night four more women were accosted by mysterious and unknown men, and the police are redoubling their efforts to unravel the strange mystery.

At 11 o'clock last night Miss Flora Disard and her married sister, Mrs. Logan, were on their way home from a whist party and when at Seventh and Market streets they noticed a strange man following them. They quickened their steps and the man did likewise and he was about to overtake them when they ran into the house of a friend at Fifth and Myrtle streets. The unknown man following them. They quickened their steps and when at Seventh and Market streets they noticed a strange man following them. They quickened their steps and when at Seventh and Market streets they noticed a strange man following them.

The description of the man furnished by Miss Disard does not tally with the description of little Flossie White's assailant. The latter had long white hair and dark clothing and wore a black mask. The man described by Miss Disard was gray clothing, was of dark complexion and had black hair and mustache. Neither of these descriptions tallies with that of the man who attacked Miss Julia Brasher at Fourteenth and Poplar streets Monday night. Miss Brasher described her assailant as a young man of medium height and smooth shaven. She was out walking with Martin F. Noone, a grocery clerk, who left her in a joking way and walked half a block before he looked back. When he did he saw her struggling with a man. Miss Brasher says the man put one arm around her waist and the other around her neck and forced her to the ground. He ran away, however, when he heard Noone's rapidly approaching footsteps.

No description has been obtained of the man who tried to catch the three little girls, Virgie and May Hamilton and Gladys Head, at Fifth and Brush streets.

last Friday night. The girls were too frightened to observe. The two daughters of E. L. Dale of 630 Seventh street reported to the police this morning that those who were on duty were home last night a man jumped from behind some trees at Seventh and Grove streets and tried to catch them. They ran and the man did not follow them. They could not furnish the police with a description of the man.

The police say that women, after hearing of the experience of little Flossie White, are apt to be nervous and mistake the ordinary acts of pedestrians as being suspicious.

GENERAL S. B. YOUNG IS BACK FROM TRIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—Major-General S. B. M. Young, Brigadier-General G. M. Randall and Brigadier-General W. A. Kobbe, and General Young's aide, Lieutenant James F. McKinley, Fourteenth Cavalry, who returned last night from their trip to Southern California, will leave again tomorrow morning to inspect two sites in the north-east part of the State, one the land to the north and east of Sacramento, and the other at Hooker station, within about 100 miles of the State Capital. The board, composed of the three general officers, met at army headquarters this morning to consider the various sites already inspected. Those about Fresno and those along the line of the Southern Pacific in Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Los Angeles and San Diego. Of all these sites elaborate maps have been made, and the Generals are giving the most minute attention to the points of the various tracts of land. The final choice of the site rests with Congress.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE TURF.

Four pronounced favorites finished first at Emeryville yesterday and the other two races were taken by well played horses second choice in the betting. One of these was Sly, that grand old Pacific mare who has won sprinting races summer and winter all over the country. She was in a field of sprinters yesterday that are classed with some of the best we have here yet she fairly ran away from them in the stretch and won by three lengths in fast time. The Pride, favorite for the race, was heavily backed both at the track and out of town pools. He set a merry pace for six furlongs but could not last.

Jackson, Bullman and O'Connor were the successful riders each winning two races. Afghan began the day well for Jackson by winning the first race for his new owner C. O. Ray who purchased him from Frisco Lind. The last named thought Afghan too unreliable for his stable and for that reason parted with him. Elanche Sheppard ran a splendid race and will do to watch. Jackson's other victor was with Tower of Candies who had to do his level best to defeat Sir Hampton. O'Connor won with Watercure and Sly, and Bullman landed the two hot favorites Thaddeus and Wyoming.

"Here is an object lesson to some of those who 'kick' against so many valuable stakes on the turf and refuse to

Surprising Results

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant and long standing remedy in tablet form, druggists everywhere admit that Stuart's Catarrh

Tablets, which they sell at 50 cents for full sized treatment, is the safest, most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap medicines give a temporary relief, especially with little children, by destroying nerve sensation; the irritation in the throat, which causes coughing, is temporarily removed, not by removing the cause but by deadening the nerves of feeling the irritation is not felt, although it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretion, whether in the nose, throat or stomach, because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics like Red Gum, Blood Root, etc.; when you use these tablets you know what you are putting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiates or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Dr. Ramsdell in commenting on catarrh cures says: "I can heartily recommend Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine nor other dangerous drug found in so many advertised catarrh cures. I have known of many cases of long standing catarrh of the head and throat completely cured by the daily use of these tablets for several weeks. One case in particular, who had been unable to reach with an inhaler or spray and where the catarrh caused daily headaches and a noticeable loss of hearing, was entirely cured by this harmless but effective remedy."

Dr. Walnwright says: "never hesitate to prescribe Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for catarrhal headaches and catarrhal deafness because I know them to be perfectly safe for child or adult and have seen many remarkable cures resulting from their daily use; because they are advertised and sold in drug stores is no reason why any good physician should not use them, because we should seize upon the means of cure which is so simple and so safe."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrhal colds in children because they are so pleasant to the taste and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

Druggists will sell the remedy at fifty cents for full sized package. A little book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free by addressing Dr. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

MAKES REPLY TO REV. BROWN.

TAKES CONGREGATIONALIST TO TASK FOR ATTACKING CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

"San Francisco, Cal., January 15, 1902. "EDITOR OAKLAND TRIBUNE: Dear Sir: In the course of an lecture given last Sunday by Rev. C. E. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Oakland, the statement was made, as reported in your paper, that "The speaker did not doubt but that a great many people were helped by the study of Christian Science, and that many were devout believers in its efficacy. For these he had kind words, but when speaking of the healers who were said to have allowed a child to die in East Oakland for the lack of proper medical treatment, he said: 'Only a few days ago a little girl who was being attended by these healers died, and the nature of the case was such as to shock the sensibilities of the whole people. These things are occurring in all our cities where children are being neglected through this science. In addition to this many children are being exposed to contagion, and thus the laws which govern the health of the community are being infringed.'"

"Knowing the circumstances of the case referred to, I can say that the above statement is wholly unwarranted. The facts in the case, as given by the Christian Scientist who had charge of it, are as follows: 'I was called in on the Slater case the Monday preceding New Year's, and reported the case to the Health Office Tuesday morning following my second visit. The child passed away Wednesday. It was the first case of scarlet fever I have treated in the six or seven years I have been practicing that terminated fatally. Physicians allow disease to run its course, as they say, but in the many cases I have attended, I have nearly always succeeded in averting it beyond any danger of contagion within forty-eight hours.'"

"As soon as the case was reported the house was placarded and placed in quarantine, so the health laws were complied with by the Christian Scientist. The charges that children are being neglected and exposed to contagion in all our cities through Christian Science cannot be substantiated, for Christian Scientists are instructed to comply with the laws governing contagious diseases."

"While Christian Science is generally effective in healing scarlet fever as well as other diseases, it is not claimed that every case will be healed; but do the doctors never lose such cases? The official record of a number of our largest cities shows that during the past few months there were two hundred and eighteen deaths from scarlet fever. No doubt most of them had the best medical skill obtainable, but with fatal results."

"Rev. Mr. Brown's statement that he fully realized that the study of Christian Science would aid a man in the government of his body is a statement of a case of scarlet fever, typhoid fever or any other malignant disease attacked the human body a physician of the highest skill was necessary. It shows a lack of understanding of Christian Science on his part, and lack of faith. As a professional man, he should have remembered that 'with God all things are possible,' and that when Jesus went about 'preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sicknesses and all manner of diseases among the people,' He was doing what He commanded Him to do. He should have sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. Is the reverend gentleman saying this command is not to be obeyed? Christian Science teaches that this injunction is as imperative today as when it was given, and Christian Scientists are demonstrating it to the extent of their present understanding. Yours sincerely,

FRANK W. GALE,
"Christian Science Publication Committee for California, 3155 Nineteenth street."

Vulcan Smelting & Refining Co.,

306 Pine St.,

San Francisco, Cal.

Gentlemen:—

We have just completed a very successful run in the 50-ton furnace sold to us by your company on a mixed carbonate and sulphide ore, and turned out a 96 per cent copper bullion, carrying the gold and silver values, with a loss of less than three-quarters of 1 per cent of copper in the slag, which, as you are aware, is remarkably low in the smelting of carbonate ores. The furnace is all right, -- it's a wizard. We would have been very glad to tender you this testimonial before, but desired to make the run entirely with our own force, separate from the operation of same by your force sent here to blow furnace in.

We find that our 30 H. P. boiler is able to operate furnace in a most satisfactory manner. We also find that your statements regarding the smelter have not been exaggerated at all, and that the operation of the furnace is entirely as represented, and is a complete success, and will within the near future place with the Vulcan Company an order for a 100-ton plant, which we will install at Lordsburg also.

Yours truly,

PACIFIC UNION MINING & SMELTING CO.,

W. W. Barham
Secretary.

ANALYSIS OF J. F. CUTTER WHISKEY

In our analysis of the sample of whiskey left with us by you we find the Alcohol by volume to be 47.13% and by weight, 39.80%; the Extractive Matter amounts to 0.85% and the Inorganic Matter to but the minutest of traces. As the result of these and other tests we find the whiskey to be free from all abnormal or deleterious ingredients; to be up to the standard strength; and to constitute an absolutely pure article.

FRATERNAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

MANY INTERESTING EVENTS SCHEDULED IN THE LOCAL LODGE ROOMS.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Last Tuesday evening, January 14, Dirigo Lodge, after electing several strangers as members, conferred the third rank on a number of esquires, and then, under the leadership of J. F. Sloan, installed the following officers for the ensuing term: C. C. R. D. Holmes; V. C. M. Bock; P. W. J. Williams; M. of W. Chas. Murray; K. R. and S. J. S. Rees; M. of F. E. Koertner; M. of B. F. L. Larmer; M. at A. L. Desimore; I. G. H. W. Keller; O. G. E. N. Myers.

Every seat in the hall was occupied and all present were very well pleased with the appearance of the lodge team, which under the careful training of Captain Smiley, has become quite expert in its drill and never fails to make a favorable impression on the candidates.

Many visitors were present, all local lodges being represented. Next Tuesday evening, January 21, the Page Rink will be conferred and all Brother Knights are cordially invited to attend.

OAKLAND LODGE.

Oakland Lodge, No. 103. One of the most complete social functions of the season in Pythian circles took place on Thursday night, January 9, at Woodmen's Hall, the occasion being the public installation of officers of Oakland Lodge, No. 103, and the home social and banquet of the lodge.

The regular lodge business having been disposed of at 8 p. m., the castle gates were thrown open and the magnificent hall was immediately thronged with the members' families and invited guests.

Laterally speaking the old officers were seated on the new ones seated in on wave crested with good fellowship, feasting, mirth and music. Deputy James Sloan, aided by Colonel J. F. Abbot of Charter Oak Lodge of Stockton, acting as Grand Master-at-Arms; H. Holland of Live Oak, No. 17, as Grand Prelate; H. Schaffner of Records and Seals, and P. G. John Kohn of No. 17 as Grand Master of Finance, installed the officers for the current term.

A pleasing episode then occurred. Brother S. W. Cronin, in an eloquent manner presented on behalf of the lodge to its retiring Chancellor Commander, Frank Truhna, an elegant jewel emblem of his lodge. The Chancellor, in appropriate language in accepting the jewel surprised even his most intimate acquaintances.

When the closing ode was sung the electric button was touched and flung wide the doors of the banquet hall and to one of Strauss' creations rendered by Prof. Louder's excellent orchestra, the march to the banquet commenced. The banquet was held for 350. The menu was as follows:

Eastern oysters on half-shell; cold meats; turkey, cranberry jelly; ham, corn, and celery; cold chicken; potato salad; a Moon; crab salad; a la sauce; celery, lettuce, radishes, queen olives, pickles, cheese. Fruit—Bananas, oranges, pines, raisins, apples, figs, etc. Desserts—Cakes—Potted, mince, angel, nut, knicker; ice cream, strawberry and vanilla; black coffee, milk, soda water, claret punch and seltzer water.

Justice had been done to the vanguard. Brother N. Bonham, chairman, rapped the assemblage to order and conspicuous among those who he called upon were George Samuels, Grand Master-at-Arms; J. F. Schaffner, G. K. of R. and S. and Deputy James Sloan.

The older and more sedate among the assembled whiled away the evening in a congenial conversation and the younger set aided by appropriate music tripped the light fantastic until it was time to homeward go.

PYTHIAN DIRECTORS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pythian Hall Association was held at Pythian Hall last evening. The secretary's annual report shows the past year's success. The following directors were chosen for 1902: J. N. Bonham, George Samuels, L. Mott, E. Bonham, William McCarthy, H. V. Helm, C. B. Des Cornier, S. Samuels, M. Rogers, A. S. Meily, E. J. Murphy, E. Schwarzbach, John Crossman, P. J. Ryan and M. Muehlenbach.

The directors elected J. N. Bonham president, C. B. Des Cornier vice-president; George Samuels, secretary and Union National Bank, depository.

WILL DEDICATE ORGAN IN EAST OAKLAND CHURCH.

An interesting musical program has been planned for Friday evening of this week in the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Eighth avenue, near Sixteenth street, East Oakland, to dedicate the new pipe organ recently placed in the church.

In addition to the organ numbers there will be violin and vocal solos and quartet numbers. The people of the Pilgrim Church very cordially invite all who are interested, especially the residents of East Oakland. This will be the first of a series of socials to be held by the church.

COMMANDER TUCKER LEAVES FOR THE EAST.

Commander Booth-Tucker of the Salvation Army left this city last night for New York via New Orleans. His wife, Constance Booth-Tucker, is happily recovering from her illness and will soon be able to resume her home.

She is now at the residence of Colonel Geo. French on Eighth avenue, having been removed from Fabila hospital yesterday.

REWARD WILL BE PAID FOR LOST HORSE.

A bay horse with white feet has been lost in East Oakland. B. L. Griffin, at 2 Lester avenue, will pay a reward for the return of the same.

DEATHS REPORTED.

Frank Reeves, a native of Iowa, aged 16 years, died at the East Bay Sanitarium after an illness of one week.

Catherine Hight, aged 74 years, died yesterday at 1172 Seventh street. The funeral will take place Friday at Haywards.

WHERE IS JAMES SKAGGS?

City Clerk Rod W. Church has received a letter from J. H. Boles of 608 North Broadway, Oklahoma City, asking for the whereabouts of the writer's uncle, James Skaggs, who was formerly in the saloon business in Oakland.

WHERE IS JAMES SKAGGS?

City Clerk Rod W. Church has received a letter from J. H. Boles of 608 North Broadway, Oklahoma City, asking for the whereabouts of the writer's uncle, James Skaggs, who was formerly in the saloon business in Oakland.

Brother Mosely being the senior officer present, the work of installing devolved on him. He was assisted by some visiting past master artisans. The work was well executed and the ceremony passed off without interruption. The following were installed: Augustus Kempey, master artisan; Ella Atwater, superintendent; Edward G. Miller, secretary; Mary Deering, treasurer; Daniel Burns, senior conductor; D. M. Walcott, master of ceremonies; Catherine Kempey, junior conductor; Lilly Ennis, instructor; Annie Smith, warden.

After the business of the meeting was concluded, all were invited to participate in a social spread that had been provided by the entertainment committee.

The committee, which is headed by Sister Lumsden and assisted by Sisters Ennis, Cooper, Cunard, Atwater and Felton, deserves great credit for the manner and nicety in which everything was arranged.

During the banquet, remarks were made by Dr. Mayhew, Brother Driver, Brother Mosely, Brother Burns, Brother Helmke and a few others. The party happily broke off at midnight.

PACIFIC LODGE.

The regular meeting of Pacific Lodge, No. 7, takes place this evening, when the officers for the ensuing term will be installed by District Deputy Grand Master E. W. Marston and Assistant Secretary, Extension Committee.

Arranging for a "hard-tack" festival to take place on the evening of January 23d. It will be an open meeting for members and their invited friends.

Pacific Lodge has lost another old member in the death of Col. W. C. Little, who became a member of the lodge over twenty-two years ago. He was among those present at the re-union of the "Old Guard" of the order, held last month.

trict Deputy President Kate Talbot and her efficient staff of officers installed on their respective chairs the following officers for the ensuing term: Past noble grand, Ruth Baldwin; noble grand, Jessie Boswell; vice grand, Abba Eastman; recording secretary, Emma Pump; treasurer, (for twelfth term), Catherine Thomas; warden, Kate Talbot; conductor, May Striker; s. noble grand, Marie Casoria; l. s. noble grand, Sister Nichols; v. s. vice grand, Pernell Jones; s. vice grand, Mary Jones; inside guard, Mary Jones; outside guard, Ebenezer Baldwin; left scene sup., Mary Nanning; r. scene sup., Sister Sherman; chaplain, Neale Ammerman.

After the installation, Sister Ammerman, in a few well chosen words, presented the retiring noble grand, Mrs. J. P. Baldwin, with a beautiful past noble grand's jewel, to which Sister Baldwin responded, thanking all for the honor. After the social, the noble grand, through the sickness of the previous noble grand, Sister Baldwin had served two terms as noble grand, and had not been present for some time. Sister Baldwin, on behalf of the lodge, presented a "package" which, when opened, proved not to be a "bomb" but a beautiful past noble grand's jewel, to which Sister Baldwin responded, thanking all for the honor.
